

April 27, 2010
13:00 – 17:00

Marriott Hotel
Prague, V Celnici 8

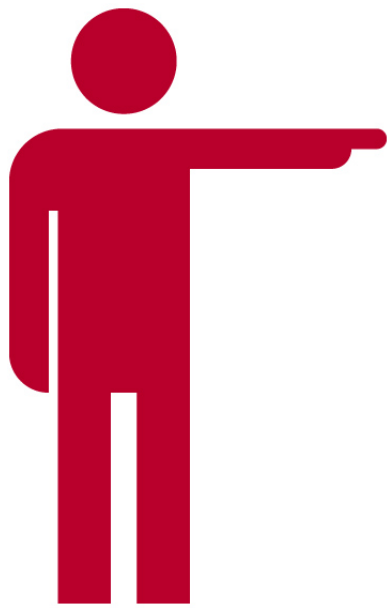

Obama's reform and its impact on health care in developed countries.

Presentations and discussion will be interpreted into English and Czech.

2010

HealthReform.cz Series

Is Obama's reform rather a success or a missed opportunity?

How will it change the United States healthcare and what impact it will have on health systems in other developed countries?

Would you like to understand the U.S. healthcare and its reform behind media simplifications?

Presentations will be given by members of Health reform.cz and foreign guests, including video entries by leading U.S. experts. Participants of panel discussion further include:

JANA PETRENKO - Coalition for Health, Prague

JOHAN HJERTQVIST - Consumer Health Powerhouse, Brussels

TOMÁŠ JULÍNEK - The Senate of the Czech Republic, Prague

ONDŘEJ SCHNEIDER - Institute of International Finance, Washington and Charles University, Prague

MARTIN DE VILLIERS - ICON, South Africa

program

13:00 – 14:00 Registration and lunch

14:00 – 14:30 Opening, current status of the U.S. healthcare system and need for change

JAMES RICE, The Governance Institute, USA

14:30 – 15:00 Obama's reform – how did it develop and what does it bring

PAVEL HROBON, Advance Healthcare Management Institute, CZ

15:00 - 15:30 Coffee break

15:30 – 15:50 Impact of Obama's reform on healthcare systems in the U.S.A. and other developed countries

TOMÁŠ MACHÁČEK, Health Reform.cz, CZ

15:50 – 17:00 Panel discussion, including questions from the audience

registration

Please register at:

www.zdravotnireforma.cz

CAPACITY IS LIMITED TO 40 PARTICIPANTS !

Opening of registration: 12:30h in the conference floor of the hotel

Registration fee : 9 800 CZK

The fee includes conference participation, handouts for participants, lunch and refreshments. VAT is not included.

Contact and assistance:

Simona Vormová - email: vormova@healthreform.cz